3. Processing purposes and legal basis

Your personal data will be processed in accordance with the provisions of the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR), the German Federal Data Protection Act (BDSG) and other relevant data protection regulations. The processing and use of the individual data depends on the agreed or requested service. You can find further details and additions to the processing purposes in our contract documents, forms, declarations of consent and other information provided to you (e.g. on the website).

3.1 Consent (Art. 6 para. 1 letter a GDPR)

If you have given us your consent to process personal data, the respective consent is the legal basis for the processing specified therein. You can revoke your consent at any time with effect for the future.

3.2 Fulfillment of contractual obligations (Art. 6 para. 1 letter b GDPR)

We process your personal data for the performance of our contracts with you, in particular as part of our order processing and Utilization of services. Furthermore, your personal data will be processed to carry out measures and activities in the context of pre-contractual relationships.

3.3 Fulfillment of legal obligations (Art. 6 para. 1 c GDPR)

We process your personal data if this is necessary to fulfill legal obligations (e.g. commercial and tax laws).

Furthermore, we may process your data for the fulfillment of control and reporting obligations under tax law and the archiving of data for the purposes of data protection and data security as well as for audits by tax and other authorities. In addition, the disclosure of personal data may become necessary in the context of official/judicial measures for the purposes of gathering evidence, criminal prosecution or the enforcement of civil law claims.

3.4 Legitimate interest of us or third parties (Art. 6 para. 1 f GDPR)

We may also use your personal data on the basis of a balancing of interests to protect our legitimate interests or those of third parties. This is done for the following purposes:

- for advertising or market research, if you have not objected to the use of your data
- for obtaining information and exchanging data with credit agencies if this goes beyond our economic risk.
- for the limited storage of your data if deletion is not possible or only possible with disproportionate effort due to the special type of storage.
- for the assertion of legal claims and defense in legal disputes that are not directly attributable to the contractual relationship.
- for ensuring and exercising our domiciliary rights through appropriate measures (e.g. visitor list).

4. Categories of personal data processed by us

The following data is processed:

- Personal data (name, nationality, profession/industry and comparable data)
- Contact details (address, e-mail address, telephone number and similar data)
- Confirmation of payment/cover for bank and credit cards
- Supplier history

We also process personal data from public sources (e.g. internet, media, press, commercial and association registers, population registers).

If necessary for the provision of our services, we process personal data that we have lawfully received from third parties (e.g. address publishers, credit agencies).

5. Who receives the data?

We pass on your personal data within our company to those areas that require this data to fulfill contractual and legal obligations or implement our legitimate interest.

In addition, the following bodies may receive your data:

- Processors used by us (Art. 28 GDPR), service providers for supporting activities and other controllers within the meaning of the GDPR, in particular in the areas of IT services, logistics, courier services, printing services, external data centers, support/maintenance of IT applications, archiving, document processing, accounting and controlling, data destruction, purchasing/procurement, customer administration, marketing, telephony, website management, tax consulting, auditing services, credit institutions
- public bodies and institutions in the event of a legal or official obligation according to which we are obliged to provide information, report or pass on data or the passing on of data is in the public interest
- bodies and institutions on the basis of our legitimate interest or the legitimate interest of the third party (e.g. authorities, credit agencies, debt collection agencies, lawyers, courts, experts and supervisory bodies)
- other bodies for which you have given us your consent to transfer data

6. Transfer of your data to a third country or to an international organization

Data processing outside the EU or the EEA does not place.

7. How long do we store your data?

Where necessary, we process your personal data for the duration of our business relationship, which also includes the initiation and execution of a contract.

In addition, we are subject to various retention and documentation obligations arising from the German Commercial Code (HGB) and the German Fiscal Code (AO), among others. The retention and documentation periods specified there are up to 10 years after the end of the business relationship or the pre-contractual legal relationship.

Ultimately, the storage period is also determined by the statutory limitation periods, which, for example, according to Sections 195 et seq. of the German Civil Code (BGB), are generally three years, but in certain cases can be up to thirty years.

8. To what extent is there automated decision-making in individual cases (including profiling)?

We do not use any purely automated decision-making processes in accordance with Article 22 GDPR. Should we use these procedures in individual cases, we will inform you of this separately if this is required by law.

9. Your data protection rights

You have the right of access under Art. 15 GDPR, the right to rectification under Art. 16 GDPR, the right to erasure under Art. 17 GDPR, the right to restriction of processing under Art. 18 GDPR and the right to data portability under Art. 20 GDPR. In addition, you have the right to lodge a complaint with a

Data protection supervisory authority (Art. 77 GDPR). In principle, you have the right to object to the processing of personal data by us in accordance with Article 21 GDPR. However, this right to object only applies if there are very special circumstances relating to your personal situation, whereby rights of our company may conflict with your right to object. If you wish to assert one of these rights, please contact the person responsible for data protection in our company (see 1. and 2.).

10. Scope of your obligations to provide us with your data

You only need to provide the data that is required for the establishment and execution of a business relationship or for a pre-contractual relationship with us or that we are legally obliged to collect. Without this data, we will generally not be able to conclude or execute the contract. This may also relate to data required later in the course of the business relationship. If we request additional data from you, you will be informed separately of the voluntary nature of the information.

11. Information about your right to object Art. 21 GDPR

You have the right object at any time to the processing of your data based on Art. 6 (1) f GDPR (data processing on the basis of a balancing of interests) or Art. 6 (1) e GDPR (data processing in the public interest) if there are reasons for this arising from your particular situation. This also applies to profiling based on this provision within the meaning of Art. 4 No. 4 GDPR.

If you object, we will no longer process your personal data unless we can demonstrate compelling legitimate grounds for the processing which override your interests, rights and freedoms or for the establishment, exercise or defense of legal claims.

The objection can be sent informally to the address listed under point 1.

12. Your right to lodge a complaint with the competent supervisory authority

You have the right to lodge a complaint with the data protection supervisory authority (Art. 77 GDPR). The supervisory authority responsible for us is
